Figures Show HTHS
Desperately Needs
Higher Tax Rate

THIS IS AS SERIOUS a dissertation as of Timmo has written, and there may be more on the subject later this week. It must be this week because the decisive day is Friday.

It concerns the referendum on a tax rate increase for the Harrisburg Township High School district to be held at the high school Friday, April 20.

Twice the proposition to increase the rate has been put before the people and twice it has been downed. The last time the margin was just a handful of votes, but the proposition was defeated. A win this time is a must, or you'll be seeing the school go down, down, down and that isn't a pleasant thought.

First, let us point out that for years the school operated on a 50 cent rate. This was enough for years, but costs started going up and the school got caught in the spiral. The two efforts to get out of it failed.

Last year the legislature permitted the school to increase its rate to 65 cents, and a lot of people will ask why this was not sufficient. It may have been, had valuations and state aid stayed up, but both dropped dismally.

Valuations decreased four million dollars in two years, and you can see by that, although the 65-cent rate helped, the school is still operating on a deficit this year. It will be in debt $70,000 for two years of operation, although costs at the school have been cut, chiefly through holding the teachers' pay schedules down—down farther than most of them in the state.

And state aid, which was $30,154.17 in 1948, has been dropping until it will be about $12,000 for this school term.

If you doubt that a rate increase is needed, listen to this:

The amount of revenue per pupil received by the HTHS district for last year was just $175.75.

Know how much the amount of revenue per pupil was for the same year over at Eldorado? Take a guess.

The figure was $260.14.

Now take Carrier Mills.

There the figure was $250.61.

And Galatia. The amount of revenue per pupil received by the Galatia district was $238.30.

So you can't blame the deficits at Harrisburg high school on poor administration. Not when they were doing their best to educate the kids at $175.75 per pupil for a school year.

Let's look at some of the bigger schools around us.

Mt. Vernon got $293.38 per pupil to operate, and Herrin, with a dollar rate, got $248.83. Carmi got $355.12 per pupil because valuations are high in that area. Benton got $247.24, nearly $75 per pupil per year more than Harrisburg.

This year, with the 65-cent rate, the local figure will be around $207 per pupil.

And still some of us sit and say we ought to make it on what we're getting.

And the school keeps on trying, getting another day older and deeper in debt.

The 66-cent rate, if it passes, will produce $276.39 per pupil, less than the average southern Illinois school received a year ago.

I don't like tax increases, either, but in times of emergency—and this is an emergency—we all must get to put back the school up at the top, where it belongs.

High School Board Voting Spirited

Paul Endicott,
Ed Brantley,
DeVar Elected

1313 Ballots Cast;
City School
Election Quiet

Paul Endicott and Ed Brantley were re-elected and Harvey DeVar was elected to the Harrisburg Township high school board of education in spirited balloting that saw 1,313 voters go to the polls.

Endicott got 794 votes, Brantley 754 and DeVar 680. Other voting went as follows:

Jack Davenport 555, Charles Rauh 164 and Tom Hauptmann, a write-in candidate, 160.

There were 47 spoiled ballots. The voting was held at the high school.

With DeVar joining the board, the HTHS board of education will be without George O. Davenport for the first time in 45 years. Mr. Davenport did not elect to run again.

The city school election was quiet, although 215 went to the polls at the Junior high school to cast their votes in the no-contest balloting. J. A. (Art) Bottomley received 215 votes and George Barnes 213. There were write-ins of two other names.

There was a contest in the Dorrisville district, where Toby Pelhank, with 41 votes, and Jack Cox, with 35, were re-elected.

At Carrier Mills Loren P. Dallas was re-elected and Eckart Ozmert was elected to the high school board. Bud Hearn and Siegel Meier were elected to the grade school board out of a field that also included Dwayne Fife and Eugene Prather. Dallas received 172 votes and Ozmert 243. A total of 353 votes was cast.

Galatia elected members to its high school and grade school boards without contests. Terry Fowler, Virdon Garrett and Paul Droit were named to the high school board. On the grade school board, Arthur Hill and William Alfred Smith were elected to three-year terms. Jesse Higgins to a two-year term and Bob Jones to a term of one year.

Raleigh grade school board of education elected four members, also without opposition, as follows: John Wesley and Kenneth Henson to three-year terms, J. T. Spencer to a two-year term and J. D. Tison to a one-year term.

Cottage District 73 elected Lee A. Berry and Charles E. Dench to the board without opposition.

At Eldorado, there was no opposition on the city school board, where Stanley Carter and Harold Ingram were re-elected, but there was a three-way race for two places on the high school board, Carl Davenport and Wilburn Butler winning out over Harry Bramlet, incumbent.

With the vote in Johnson and Williamson counties yet to be canvassed, unofficial figures kept by The Daily Register gave Dale Sullivan a lead of 136½ over C. L. McCormick in their race for state representative from the 59th district.

The unofficial totals were Sullivan 15,047 to 14,910½ for McCormick for the second spot in the nominations. Gordon Kerr was out in front with an unofficial 19,385 for the eight counties in the district.

The Republican legislative vote for Saline county had been canvassed but not yet certified and Sullivan picked up 33½ votes on the Saline county canvass. Saline county started its canvass of other offices today.

In Hamilton county, Sullivan picked up one vote over McCormick after the canvass was made, it was reported from McLeansboro. The Williamson county canvass was started this morning, it was learned. The Johnson county canvass was to start at 2 p. m. today.

Here are the unofficial and canvassed figures for Saline county:

Large Snowflakes
Here This Morning

Harrisburg got an April 16 snowfall this morning, and it was a pretty good one while it lasted. Snowflakes as big as demitasse saucers began falling and the ground got pretty well covered.

However, the weather was not cold enough for the flakes to stay any length of time and the snow soon melted. In fact, the sun was out shortly after the snowfall ended.

Mr. and Mrs. Capel D. Wallace of Peoria, former local residents, were injured at 4 p. m. Saturday when their auto overturned on Route 34 a half mile south of Rileyville.

State Policeman Roy A. Lane, who investigated, said Wallace lost control of the machine, which turned over several times, while they were en route to Harrisburg to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dillon Wallace.

Mrs. Wallace, who was thrown from the car, was treated at Lightner hospital for broken ribs and bruises. Her husband suffered torn ligaments in the arm,

Nuclear Tests in Pacific to Feature
H-Bomb Blast Witnessed by Newsmen

WASHINGTON (AP)—The biggest nuclear test program ever held in the Pacific is about to start.

It will feature, about May 1, the first U. S. H-bomb test ever witnessed by newsmen and other "unofficial observers."

This "public shot" will be equal in violence to several million tons of TNT. It will be one of the largest shots of the test series, which will include more than 10 explosions.

The program will get under way shortly after April 20. The United States has issued a warning to the world that a rectangle of 375,000 nautical square miles (nearly 500,000 square land miles) around the Marshall Island proving ground will be a hazard area from April 20 until the tests end during the summer.

The test opener will be at least the 66th U. S. nuclear explosion. Russia, with possibly 30 atomic explosions under her belt, and Britain with 3 also are conducting tests this year.

Tests devices will be more varied than ever before. They will include nuclear featherweights, lightweights, middleweights and heavyweights. None will be as big as the Bikini "super" detonated Mar. 1, 1954. The series included five giant blasts.

It will be the first Pacific test program in a decade to which newsmen and other outsiders were admitted. More than a score of Civil Defense officials, probably including a few governors, and 15 reporters, photographers, and radio-TV technicians will witness the big blast scheduled for May 1.

They will watch from the USS Mt. McKinley, a communications-command ship, at a distance of about 50 miles, according to press plans.

Tipoff to Power
That suggested distance is a tip-off to the might of the weapon.

Its anticipated energy yield has not been announced. Apparently, however, it will be somewhere between 5 and 10 megatons. A one-megaton bomb equals the explosive power of one million tons of TNT.

Both Eniwetok and Bikini, the two atolls of the proving ground, will be used for test shots in the spring series. The observer shot will be set off at Bikini. It may be an air drop from an H-bomber. Or it may be exploded on a barge, on the ground, or on a tower.

A prime purpose of the new tests is to develop small atomic warheads for defense. In past tests at the Nevada proving ground devices of less than 1,000 tons TNT equivalent have been exploded.

The largest A-bomb equals around 500,000 tons, and the largest U. S. H-bomb ever actually tested was a 15-megaton device, according to informed sources. There is no upper limit, however.

President Asks
Congress to Pass
Soil Bank Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today vetoed the farm bill.

In a message to the House of Representatives, Mr. Eisenhower said he acted with "intense disappointment and regret."

Because he found the bill before him improper for improvement of current farm income, he announced that the administration would take four immediate steps:

1. Price supports of wheat, corn, cotton, rice and peanuts will be set by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson at a level of $2 1-2 per cent of parity. This meant that the administration will guarantee a national price average of wheat at $2 a bushel, corn at $1.50 a bushel, and rice at $4.50 per 100 pounds.
2. The support price of milk will be increased to $3.25 per 100 pounds and the support on butter will be increased to 58.6 cents a pound.
3. The Agriculture Department promised, "where assistance will be constructive," to strengthen the prices of perishable farm commodities.
4. The request requested Congress to pass a "straight soil bank bill as promptly as possible . . . before fall seeding for next year's crops."

This combined program of administrative action and legislative enactment will begin now to improve the income and welfare of all our farm families," the President said to the House.

"Here is a challenge for both the legislative and executive branches of the federal government."

His veto message was sent to the House because that is where the bill originated last year.

Will Explain Tonight
The President will further explain his action to the American public by radio at 8 p. m. CST. His remarks will be filmed and telecast later in the evening.

The waste paper pickup by Boy Scout Troop 23, scheduled for last Saturday, was practically washed out by the Saturday morning rain.

A member of the Scout committee stated this morning that six trucks, six drivers and 40 boys are required to complete the pickup.

The trucks and drivers were released when the weather was too bad to pick up the paper Saturday morning and only one truck was available for the drive Saturday afternoon.

"The trucks and drivers' services are donated to the drive but when it was too wet to work during the morning the trucks and drivers went about their regular business," it was stated.

Weather permitting the Boy Scouts will conduct a paper pickup Saturday, April 21.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Thou shalt keep His statutes and His commandment . . . that it may go well with thee. Deut. 4:40. God's laws are for His children, they are not arbitrary laws of no meaning.

Let's Check It

With April here, we've come upon spring again, a time for cleaning the attic, digging around those flower bulbs, and painting the window screens.

And something else we ought to pay attention to. Along with all this refurbishing, don't overlook the old physiological machine, that body of yours. It's time to check up on your health, we're reminded by the American Cancer Society, which this year is using a catchy slogan, "Fight Cancer with a Check-up and a Check."

What this means, of course, is quite obvious. The ACS needs your co-operation in doing two things—getting enough money together to keep scientists working on a way to beat cancer permanently and getting such folks as you and me to go and have a physical examination.

Why a physical checkup? Because it's the best way to find out whether anything—including cancer—is wrong with you. Cancer can creep up on you quiet like, and you don't know you've got it until it's got you.

So take a day off from beating those rugs and see the doc. Tell him you want a thorough examination to make sure you don't have cancer. And about that check, the Cancer Society says it isn't insisting on that. If you don't trust banks, it's all right with the Society. Make out a money order and send it along. Or just good old plain coin of the realm will do. Everybody ought to get into the act, because cancer is everybody's business and we can't depend on just the check writers to do something about it. All of us have got to help.

Send your contributions to CANCER, care of your local post office, no holds barred—any kind of dough—a check if you've got one, but anyway don't forget the checkup or you might be checking out—prematurely.

Still Alive

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: Luce Presses Stop At White House; GOP-er Says Ike Risks Life To Serve; Rep. Bates Admits Power Of Committee Heads.

WASHINGTON. — Fortune Magazine, published by Ike's close friend, Henry Luce of Time, Life, and Fortune, has been having a secret hassle with the White House over an article on the National Security Council.

In the end, Fortune bowed to White House "censorship," stopped the presses, and yanked the article out of its April issue. Since several thousand copies already had been run off, it cost the Luce publishing empire quite a little money.

Involved was no breach of security, but about a hundred small changes in text. These altered specific details about National Security Council meetings so that the workings of the council, which the Fortune article described, were more general.

The changes were not ordered by the President, and he knew nothing about them. They were actually ordered because the White House aides were afraid the President would get sore when he saw the article in print. They knew he was quick to lose his temper over publication of anything about the inside workings of the Security Council over which he presides, along with Vice President Nixon, Secretary of State Dulles, Secretary of Defense Wilson, and other top-ranking cabinet advisers.

The article also showed the tremendous new power given to the council, power to make decisions which in previous administrations have been made by the President as commander-in-chief.

Most significant aspect of the incident was that the Luce organization, although violating no security, was willing to stop the presses and make the heavy expenditure involved in revamping the entire April issue. The Luce publications have become the virtual house organs of the Eisenhower administration. In addition to Mrs. Luce who serves as U. S. Ambassador to Italy, Fortune publisher C. D. Jackson once served as psychological warfare adviser on the White House staff, while Emmett Hughes, Ike's best ghost writer during his first year in the White House, has now rejoined the Luce publications.

Recently in his talks with Prime Minister St. Laurent of Canada, President Eisenhower put the Canadian magazine tax against American publications first on the agenda for discussion.

IKE'S FUTURE

It was overlooked by newsmen, but a top Republican spokesman made some startlingly frank remarks the other day about Ike's decision to run again.

Minnesota's intense, influential Congressman Walter Judd, a physician, told the GOP Women's club in his district that the President had agreed to run at the risk of his health.

"I know better than most, I think, how the President would like to be rid of this burden . . . Judd declared. "We must, of course, forget small things . . . just as this man (Eisenhower) puts them aside and walks perhaps to his doom, to his death."

POWERFUL CHAIRMEN

Not many congressmen are as frank as Congressman Perkins Bass (R., N. H.) about the power of a committee chairman.

"I had occasion recently to appreciate just how powerful these gentlemen are and just how crucial seniority is," Bass wrote in his news letter. "Among the hundreds of bills before our House Banking committee there is a relatively minor one concerning savings and loan associations. Our N. H. Banking Association is backing the bill . . .

"I called our chairman, Brent Spence of Kentucky, a good, kind, experienced gentleman. But also pretty frank. I asked him to hold hearings on the bill. He replied nicely and politely that he couldn't do that. He said he was opposed to the bill. And that was that."

WASHINGTON WHIRL

Intimates say Vice President Nixon spent the Easter vacation "charting his course," as President Eisenhower had advised. Nixon went into seclusion to reflect on his political future . . . White House aides are urging President Eisenhower to sign the farm bill and get rid of Secretary of Agriculture Benson in one master political stroke. Benson has called the bill "unacceptable." This means he would be honor-bound to resign if Ike signed it . . . The Democrats will raise another clamor for Benson's resignation. But secretly, they hope he won't quit. The farm issue is the last issue the Democrats have left . . .

The Republicans' $300,000 advertising campaign for flexible farm supports may have backfired. All the advertising referred to the Eisenhower farm program. Previously, the farmers had thought of it as the Benson farm program. Now many of them are blaming Ike . . . The Justice Department is determined to collect the $2,500,000 profit that Secretary of Agriculture paid to the big cheese companies for cheese that was never moved out of their warehouses.

MAILBAG

A. W. SAVANNAH, GA. — The background facts as to whether Senator George of Georgia did or did not promise ex-Governor Talmadge that he would not run again, are briefly as follows: In 1950, when George was up for election the last time, Georgia's Controller Zack D. Cravey was informed by Senator George that if Herman Talmadge, then governor, wanted to run for the Senate, he, George, would step aside. George said that he was getting old and would be glad to yield to the younger man. Cravey, a good friend of Talmadge's, said that the governor did not want to run for the Senate, so Senator George announced for another term the next day.

In 1952 at the Democratic convention in Chicago, Senator George was attending a Georgia state caucus and announced to other delegates: "I am serving my last term in the Senate and I am not going to let any Socialists dictate how I am going to vote on the question of civil rights."

Two years later, in 1954 at Miami, Senator George met with Herman Talmadge and told him: "I have no intention of seeking reelection and I'll be happy to take the stump for you if you want to run."

Talmadge says that George had every right to change his mind, but that since he, Talmadge, had every assurance that his candidacy would be acceptable to George, he, in turn feels that he has every right to go ahead. George would be 85 if re-elected and if he serves out a full term.

Thinking It Over

By Robert Dieffenbacher, D.D. Written for NEA Service

Anyone who feels he is self-sufficient ought to think about the number of people involved in serving him in a single day.

A whole book would be required to outline the work of the different persons who contributed to one day of our normal living.

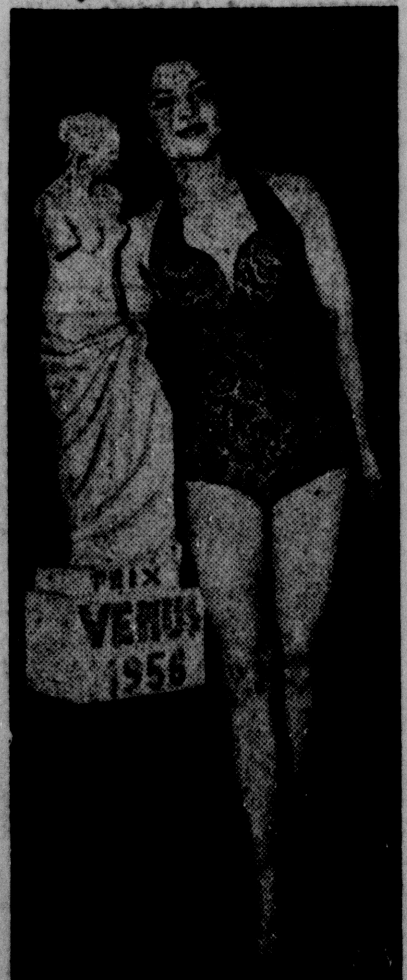

The alarm clock which wakens us required a designer, several draftsmen, a number of miners of metals, scores of craftsmen, executives, clerks, salesmen, advertising men, packers, delivery men and dozens of other folk who were indirectly related to the production and marketing of the ringing clock.

Even your orange juice or your grapefruit at breakfast required scores of people in order to make it available this morning. If you went to work, or if you mailed a letter, slept in a bed, walked on the floor or wore clothing, you required thousands of people to assist in your living today.

And behind all of the people and things involved was a Creator of man and of living things and of material elements.

God is in the picture not only as the Creator but also as the Motivator for activity and the maintenance of the order needed for existence.

We cannot live without others and without God. Let us recognize this dependence and contribute our share in the process for our appreciation of what God and people do for us.

Murphy Stresses Need of Completing Red Cross Drive for Disaster Relief

John R. Murphy, Saline County Red Cross Drive chairman, would like to remind the people of Saline county how very fortunate they have been that the county has not been in the path of some of the recent tornadoes. He asks that each family try to send $1 for a membership if no one has called for a donation. The need for funds increases with each new disaster. The tornadoes of these past few weeks emphasize the urgency of completing the 1956 campaign and reaching the goal if possible. The Red Cross services which are being provided in the disaster areas must be met from the 1956 budget.

The amount turned in to date is $5,656.05. Township chairmen have reported the following amounts: Harrisburg $2,385.63; Eldorado $1500, reported by Ralph Bean and Bernard Tanner; Carrier Mills $186 reported by Van McDonald; Stonefort $100 reported by Eckert Ozment; Long Branch $31 reported by Mrs. Stanley Sutton; Independence $104 reported by Herman McFarlin and Tolbert Syers; Brushy $57.30 reported by Mrs. Dewey Dallas; Galatia $206.72 reported by Jack Large; Mountain $45.48 reported by Guy DeNeal. The above amounts have been turned in to Mr. Murphy but many of the townships are still incomplete.

Two townships have made their quotas. In Independence township, Mr. Syers and Mr. McFarlin had a goal of $100 and exceeded the quota. In Stonefort Eckert Ozment had a quota of $100 which was met by two contributions of $50 each from the Saline County State bank and the Stonefort American Legion post No. 400.

Mr. Murphy will continue the drive to give the chairmen and workers a chance to complete their solicitations and also give the people in Saline county who were not contacted a chance to mail their contributions to him in care of the Red Cross office, Harrisburg, Ill.

Contributions of any size will be appreciated. All contributors of $1 or more who mail their contributions will be sent a membership card and sticker. The following chairmen have reported the last publication: Bishop Hill, Lewis Fulkerson, Mrs. Dale Sullivan, Dr. G. R. Johnson, Mrs. George Barnes, Mrs. Victor Humm, Mrs. Mabel Rawlins, Fred Bramlet, Mrs. Lillian Endsley, Mrs. Kenneth Roberts, Ben Brinkley.

Additional contributors of $5 or more follow:
Harrisburg township: $10: Limerick Loan, Grant's Jewelry, Hawkins Loan Co., Mt. Pleasant Baptist church, Zola Sloan, Coca-Cola

In Toledo on Monday evening members of the chorus of the Iva-lee chapter of which Mr. and Mrs. Cash were members, gave a lovely party for the Cashes and presented them with a beautiful television lamp. Members of the group expressed their regret in the Cashes going away.

The following Wednesday evening the dining room of the Grace Smith cafe in Toledo was the setting for a steak dinner party which had been planned by members of the Bethany Methodist church where Mr. and Mrs. Cash regularly attended. Mrs. Cash was a member of the choir composed of 32 adults.

After dinner the group drove to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Karm for cake and ice cream and the presentation of gifts to the Cashes. The remainder of the evening was spent in reminiscing the good times the party has had in the past two and a half years.

No Fatal Mine Accidents in March

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — Illinois miners in March produced 4,189,114 tons of coal without a fatal accident, Ben H. Schull, director of the state Department of Mines and Minerals, said today.

Mine casualty figures recorded by the department show 111 injuries and no deaths during March. Total casualties for the first three months of 1956 are 338 injuries and nine fatalities.

Schull said that there were 134 mines in 33 counties operating during March. Employment figures show 11,917 miners working during the month.

March was the fourth fatality free month since 1952, when state coal mining records were first kept. The other three deathless months were October and July 1955 and August 1954.

3 in Contest for Top Post as DAR Congress Opens

WASHINGTON — Thousands of Daughters of the American Revolution converged today for the opening their 65th annual Continental Congress and one of the most hotly contested races in years for the society's top post.

With politics more on their minds than pageantry, beribboned delegates and members lined up early this morning to register for the week-long congress at the DAR's own Constitution Hall.

The three candidates for the DAR's top post were Mrs. Charles Carroll Haig, of Washington; Mrs. Thomas Henry Lee, Philadelphia; and Mrs. Frederic A. Groves, Cape Girardeau, Mo. All three—grandmothers all—have been dispensing refreshments and campaign talk to early congress arrivals in their hotel headquarters since last week.

Prelate Has No Use For Grace's Hat

NEW YORK — A Roman Catholic prelate said Sunday he had "too much sense to criticize any woman's hat, but" he didn't have much use for the one Grace Kelly wore on her arrival in Monaco.

Addressing a communion breakfast, Msgr. Joseph A. McCaffrey said he had heard the creator of Miss Kelly's hat said she will never make another hat like it. It is the hope of everyone who saw the hat that she will keep her vow.

President Vetoes Farm Bill 'With Regret'

not decided immediately whether to attempt to override the veto. It was generally agreed they could not succeed. In any event no attempt to override was likely before Wednesday. Unofficial agreements had been made to have no record votes in the House today or Tuesday.

The President acted as he did on the farm measure because he did not believe it would "correct" price-depressing agricultural surpluses, nor offer the farmers of America "any forward-looking, sound program."

The biggest feature of the bill to which he objected was a return to 90 per cent of parity support prices. This was written into the bill by Democrats and some Midwest Republicans.

Mr. Eisenhower said he thought the measure would encourage more surpluses.

Would Harm Farmers

"It would do harm to every agricultural region of the country and also to the interests of consumers," he added. "Thus it fails to meet the test of being good for farmers and fair to all our people. The bill is self-defeating."

Mr. Eisenhower objected specifically to these provisions in the bill, terming them "unacceptable."

The return to fixed-price supports of 90 per cent of parity for basic commodities:

Dual parity for wheat, corn, cotton and peanuts;

Mandatory price support for feed grains and "multiple price plans for wheat and rice."

Surpluses Would Be Worse

"The effect of these provisions would be to increase the amount of government control and further add to our price-depressing surpluses," the President said.

Republican governors of Iowa, South Dakota and Kansas urged Mr. Eisenhower to sign the bill a few hours before his veto message was delivered.

Mr. Eisenhower in his message attacked the basic theory of Democratic congressional leaders that 90 per cent price supports should be restored.

"To return now to wartime 90 per cent supports would be wrong," the chief executive said. "Production would be stimulated. Markets would be further destroyed, instead of expanded as must be done. More surplus would accumulate — and surpluses are price depressing. Regulation by ever stricter production controls would be the end result."

"It is inconceivable that we should ask farm families to go deeper into this self-defeating round of cause and effect."

to Congress "with an urgent request for action."

"I am disappointed at the long delays which this legislation encountered," he said.

He pointed out that in his opinion his original program "came from the grass roots."

"It offered no magic panacea because, we can all agree, there is none. It did strike directly at the root of the low price—low income problems."

"Bad as some provisions of this bill are, I would have signed it if in total it could be interpreted as sound and good for farmers and the nation," the President said.

"After the most careful analysis, I conclude that the bill is contradictory and self-defeating even as an emergency relief measure, and it would lead to such serious consequences in additional surpluses and production controls as to further threaten the income and the welfare of our farm people."

Incidents Protest London Visit by Soviet Leaders

LONDON (UP) — Scotland Yard and Russia's first team of burly security agents conferred hurriedly today on anti-Communist incidents here protesting the visit this week of the Soviet leaders.

In the first incident, someone threw a "Molotov cocktail" at the door of the Soviet Press news agency office in Fleet Street. No one was hurt, and the damage was relatively minor.

A few hours later vandals stole into London's Highgate Cemetery and daubed white paint over the gigantic memorial to Karl Marx, the father of Communism.

The advance party of security agents here to protect Nikolai Bulganin and Nikita Khrushchev when they start their British tour Wednesday arrived just in time for the arson attempt.

Two more parties of Soviet security agents were arriving today. Bulganin and Khrushchev were at ready on route. They sailed from Russia Sunday aboard the cruiser Ordzhonikidze.

Cairo Police Chief is Suspended

CAIRO, Ill. (UP) — The police commissioner of Cairo suspended the city's police chief today after a dispute over a gambling raid.

Commissioner John Scapino suspended Police Chief Enloe Jones for an indefinite period. Police Sergeant William Hastings was named acting chief.

Scapino's action followed a gambling raid he led on a carnival sponsored by the Cairo auxiliary police department. Scapino did not inform Jones of the gambling raid and their dispute resulted.

Jones was named police chief of Cairo last fall after the Cairo city council fired Elmer Millikan as police chief.

Senator George is 'Disappointed' By Farm Bill Veto

ATLANTA (D-Ga.) — Sen. Walter F. George (D-Ga.) said today he is "greatly disappointed" at President Eisenhower's veto of the farm bill.

"I did not think the bill greatly offended the President's theories about what should be done for the farmers," George said.

"If the bill comes back before the Senate, I will vote to override the veto."

Earlier, George had told newsmen he felt efforts to override a veto would not be successful, and said he doubted such an effort would be made "because this is an election year."

Tax Auditors To Check Four Million Returns

WASHINGTON — The nation's chief tax collector had bad news for cheaters today.

His 12,000 auditors are going to take a real hard look at four-million income tax returns this year—twice as many as ever before.

"I don't think it's fair to say we're going to be tougher," Internal Revenue Commissioner Russell C. Harrington said. "But we've mechanized a lot and this frees more of our men to concentrate on checking returns."

Midnight tonight is the deadline for 1955 returns. As usual, thousands of late-starters were engaged in a hectic, last-minute rush to get in under the wire. Internal Revenue offices everywhere reported being swamped.

Anybody who doesn't make the deadline will have to pay five per cent interest a month on the money he owes, starting Tuesday. Altogether, early and late, there are about 58-million income tax-payers.

Harrington said about 34-million lucky people will probably get refunds this year. His aides said they expect about 95 per cent of the refunds to be paid by May 30. After that date, the government by law has to pay six per cent interest on the money it owes taxpayers.

Harrington promised that his agents will be "firm but fair" in handling returns. But he made it plain they will deal sternly with cheaters. At the very least, delinquents are charged six per cent interest on any shortage in their returns.

By tradition the service never discloses what incomes or occupation group it may concentrate on in any one year. "This helps keep everybody honest," an official said.

But it's a pretty sure bet that the service will take a harder look at the returns of big taxpayers and the self-employed than of those who are subject to automatic withholding taxes. The reason: There's a bigger chance of recovering more money.

DOWNSTATE FISHERMAN'S GUIDE: Bass Fishing Remains Good At Little Grassy; Peithman Leads Crab Orchard Derby

By PETE BROWN
(From reports by the Southern Illinois University Cooperative Fisheries Research Laboratory and the Illinois Department of Conservation)

Although tailing off from the riotous week before, bass fishing at Little Grassy lake has remained good. A week-end weather change with attendant high winds discouraged many barometer-minded fishermen, but those who persisted found fish nevertheless.

Outside of a few occasional hitches, the average bass catch at Grassy is now falling into the 12-inch class. Deep and medium lures are still doing the job. Crappie and bluegill catches continue to be light.

Some of Grassy's better catches: Merle Novak and Duane Lomas, Olney, two bass totalling 12 pounds; William Kendall, Greenville, a six-pounder; Frank Eskew, Benton, five bass between two and one-half and five and one-half; Bill Dahmer, Marion, a seven and six pounder and four others between three and five pounds; Elmer Edmonds, Marion, five bass weighing 27 pounds, 10 ounces (all on the Helldiver in 25 minutes of casting from shore); Les Marlin, Chester, three weighing 17 and one-half pounds.

Carbondale's Irvin Peithman led the bass derby at Crab Orchard last week with an eight and one-half pound beauty. Peithman was using the Paul Bunyan 66 with pork rind attached. He also picked up a five and one-half and four and one-half Tuesday evening of this week. A creel census of boat catches on the afternoon of April 4 showed nine six-inch crappie (with minnows) and a 16 and one-half inch largemouth (plug). A 12 hour check three days later produced no affirmative statistics whatever.

Frequently, crappie will be biting in the quiet coves along Route 13 when Crab Orchard boat fishermen out on the lake can't buy a strike.

A single angler's catch of 12 bluegill and redear and a two-man haul of 14 largemouth between 10 and 14 inches represented the choice results at Lake Murphysboro. The panfish were caught on worms and the bass on minnows and plugs. Two other men, using minnows, took home five bass in the 10 to 14 inch category.

According to management surveys, Horseshoe Lake's fish population is still fasting, apparently waiting out the winds and low temperatures which have plagued the lake this spring.

All kinds of fishing and camping equipment and expert demonstrations will be featured in the first annual Sportsman Show at the Carbondale Armory April 19-21. The show is being sponsored by the Physical Education Majors Club of Southern Illinois University.

Because it is not competitive with southern Illinois fishing and because it offers a rewarding type of sport totally foreign to Southern Illinois waters, a word about one

Experts Predict Another Subway World Series

NEW YORK — Shine up the tokens for the subway ride, baseball fans, because if the experts don't get caught with their predictions down it will be another all New York World Series between the Dodgers and Yankees this fall.

Today, in the annual United Press poll, 132 out of 152 sports writers picked the world champion Dodgers to win the National League flag again and 113 of the scribes forecast another Yankee pennant.

Seldom has there been such overwhelming support for two teams. In the National League side, 11 first places votes, the refurbished St. Louis Cardinals got 6, and the New York Giants 3.

In the American, the rising Red Sox from Boston drew 21 first place votes, Cleveland's pitcher-strong Indians 12, and the Chicago White Sox 5. One writer picked Detroit.

There were 107 writers who liked both the Dodgers and Yankees and the next most popular combination was 14 for the Dodgers to meet the Red Sox. There were 10 who picked Brooklyn to oppose Cleveland.

Cardinals are Champions in Grapefruit Play

By United Press
The St. Louis Cardinals were the champs today of the spring grapefruit competition that began in the Florida and Arizona sunshine and wound up Sunday in the chilly East and Midwest.

The Cardinals finished with a 21-11 won and lost mark. That gave them a percentage of .656. The Pittsburgh Pirates, who are the solid choice to finish last again, wound up second with a 20-13 mark and a .606 record.

National League clubs fared better in the overall rivalry with the American League since the high team was the 18-13 won-lost and .581 percentage figure of the New York Yankees. Cleveland was runner-up in the American with a 20-15 mark and a .571 percentage.

Brooklyn, the prime favorite to repeat in the National League race had a sorry spring and finished seventh in the National League grapefruit standings with a 15-16 record and a .484 percentage. Only Philadelphia at 15-17 was worse.

Again showing more overall strength in the early going, six out of the eight National League teams finished with records of .500 or better. The Giants were third at 19-15, the Braves fourth at 16-13, the Redlegs fifth at 17-16, and the Cubs sixth at 15-15 even.

Third place in the American League went to Kansas City's Athletics, but they had the same 15-16 mark that landed Brooklyn a lowly seventh in the National League grapefruit ratings. The Red Sox were fourth at 12-15, the White Sox fifth at 13-17, the Senators sixth at 11-16, the Orioles seventh at 11-18 and the Tigers a very lowly last at 8-19.

Pettit, Arizin, Johnston Head Pro All-Star Team

NEW YORK — Bob Pettit of the St. Louis Hawks and Paul Arizin and Neil Johnston of the champion Philadelphia Warriors headed the 1955-56 all-star team named today by the National Basketball Association.

Bob Cousy and Bill Sharman of the Boston Celtics won the other first team berths.

Maurice Stokes of the Rochester Royals became the third rookie in the league's 10-year history to gather enough votes to win a spot on the all-star squad. The former St. Francis, Pa., college star also was selected the NBA "Rookie of the Year."

Clyde Lovellette and Slater Martin of the Minneapolis Lakers, Jack George of Philadelphia and Adolph Schayes of the Syracuse Nationals were the others who won second team positions with Stokes.

Strike by 222 Closes Packing Plant at Du Quoin

DU QUOIN, Ill. — A strike of 222 workers today closed the Du Quoin Packing Co.

The strikers, who are members of Local 156 of the United Packing House Workers of America, called the strike Saturday night. This is the first day production has been halted and some 80 other employees will be idled also.

The union sought a wage increase ranging from 23 to 87 cents an hour. Local President Kenneth Hawk said the increase asked by the union would generally be 49 cents an hour. He said the raise would bring the Du Quoin pay schedule up to the general industry pattern.

The company offered a 15 cent hourly increase to be paid to all production workers. The company has made no other statement on the strike.

The union and company had a two-year contract, with a wage reopener clause. The contract expired under that clause Saturday at midnight.

No negotiating session has been scheduled.

Bandit is Slain In Tavern Holdup

ST. LOUIS — A bandit shot to death in a tavern holdup by a St. Louis police detective was identified today as a one-time cop-killer.

Police said he was Frank Bird, 49, paroled in January from the Missouri Penitentiary, who killed a policeman in a robbery in 1925 and was slain Saturday night when he attempted a robbery in a bar with his former cellmate, Robert Lee, 32.

A customer, Mrs. Mildred D. Watts, 56, was critically injured by a bullet, believed to be from Bird's gun.

Orr was critically wounded.

Europe Faces Potato Famine

LONDON — Britain and Europe are facing a potato famine. It won't be as bad as the Irish potato famine a century ago, which loosed a stream of Irish immigrants to the United States.

But it's bad enough to worry governments. And housewives are indignant over the high price of spuds, which keeps increasing as supplies decrease.

The experts blame last year's hot and rainless summer, which reduced potato yields up to 50 per cent.

Alston Concedes Dodgers Are Hurting for Pitchers; Only Three Starters Ready

By United Press
Manager Walter Alston of Brooklyn's world champions glumly conceded today that we're hurting for pitchers" but hoped that he could get along with three starters during the early days of the season when there are open dates and postponed games.

For the present at least, he has only Don Newcombe, Carl Erskine, and Roger Craig as bonafide starters, although he may press 19-year old Don Drysdale into service. Moreover, both Newcombe and Erskine have had arm trouble, too, and through cold weather, over-exertion, or other adversity join Billy Loes, Don Bessent, Karl Spooner, and Sandy Koufax in dry dock.

Naturally, the loss of lefty Johnny Podres to the Navy complicated matters even more. Fortunately, Alston is well supported with such relief stars as Clem Labine, Ed Roebuck, and Jim Hughes but if they're called on too often, the whole staff might bog down.

The Yankees, like the Dodgers, have their injury troubles, too, even though both clubs are heavily favored to win their respective races again in the season beginning Tuesday. The Yankee pitching is okay but Gil McDougald, Irv Noren, Bob Cerv, and Elston Howard have been laid up most of the spring.

All teams were idle today except for the Giants who make a sentimental journey to West Point, N. Y., to play an exhibition against Army's Cadets — a tradition that started in the time of Manager John McGraw.

Games Rained Out
In the final exhibition competition that wound up Sunday, there were five games rained out.

The Braves made it two out of three over the Indians, defeating them 3-2 at Cleveland when Bill Bruton drove in the winning run with an infield hit. The Pirates showed batting sharpness by blasting 18 hits to defeat the Tigers at Pittsburgh 11-9.
